

County News

MALTA BEND

S. T. Wilson and son shipped a car of hogs to Kansas City last Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Corder, of Waverly is visiting Mrs. Fred. Klinge this week.

Mrs. B. D. Allen visited relatives in Slater last week.

Miss Blanch Reager has returned from a visit to Lexington.

William Lunbeck of Cheyenne, Wyoming is visiting his brother, Walter Lunbeck.

Mrs. Lizzie Philpot and son, Sanford, of Los Angeles, Cal., are the guests of Mrs. Frank Clyde and sister.

Prof. H. H. Monsees, principal of Malta Bend High School, visited with friends over Sunday. He is taking a special course in Columbia University.

Mrs. Chet White died last Thursday and was buried Sunday afternoon. The funeral services conducted by Rev. C. P. Cayton.

Mrs. Geo. Adams and Mrs. Caris Kiel were Marshall visitors Tuesday.

Geo. Adams has returned from a business trip to Kansas.

Mrs. Geo. McFarland died this morning after a long illness of consumption.

S. T. Wilson was a passenger for Kansas City Tuesday.

C. A. Lunbeck and Ed Curry went to Kansas City Tuesday where they will follow their trade of carpentering. Mr. Lunbeck says work in his line has been very dull this season.

Mrs. Geo. D. Adams and Mrs. J. M. Carter were in Marshall Tuesday.

S. T. Wilson took two car loads of cattle to Kansas City Tuesday.

SALT POND

Messrs. Geo. King, W. Crain, Geo. Hemme, Leeper King, and J. W. Wilcox were Marshall visitors Monday.

Mrs. Casper Oaks and daughter returned to their home in Oklahoma Tuesday after a weeks visit here.

Mrs. Lee Wyrick left last week for Eldon, Mo., on account of the critical illness of her mother, Mrs. Lease.

Mrs. Wellington Thompson returned to her home in Higinville this week after a few days visit with her sisters, Mesdames Casper and Julius Oaks.

A recent heavy rain has swollen branches and larger streams and some are reported to have lost wheat in the high water Sunday night.

NEW HOME

Mrs. A. P. Reager and daughter, Miss Frances, of Elmwood, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Forbes.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Harris, and little daughter, Ruby Lorene, of Kingfisher, Okla., came in Monday to spend several weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Forbes and son, Roy, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. McKinney.

Misses Minnie, Dollie and Maude Harris, and Alfred Silvey, of near Houstonia were in Blackburn Monday.

Mrs. Anderson and three

GRAND FOURTH ANNUAL PICNIC!

AT

SALINE CITY THURSDAY, AUG. 15, '07

Everybody is cordially invited to come and spend the day. Lunch stand on the ground. Refreshment of every kind. Amusements of all kinds for ladies and children. Games of every kind.

Two Grand Ball Games: Lisbon vs. Saline City, at 1:30; Marshall Merchants vs. Ehler Bros. at 4 p. m.

GRAND DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS AT NIGHT

BALLOON ASCENSION

Foot and Sack Racing for Boys. Many Other Games for Ladies, Prizes for All.

Everybody come,

Remember the date, Aug. 15, If Rain till noon picnic on Friday, if rain Friday picnic Saturday

Respectfully,

COMMITTEE.

children, of Kansas City, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones at this writing.

Rev. Shanklin, of Marshall, preached at New Home Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and will also preach again the fourth Sunday at 3 o'clock.

Alfred Silvey spent Sunday night and Monday night with D. M. Harris and family.

Mrs. J. H. Guymon spent a few days of last week with relatives in Sweet Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Forbes were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Harris and family Wednesday.

Ed. N. Harnum
The little daughter of Herman Viets is sick at this writing.

SALINE VALLEY

Plenty of rain and mud.

Wheat threshing is greatly delayed on account of wet weather.

Dr. Sharp of Little Rock made a flying trip up the valley one day last week.

Joe Moosman, Henry Giger and Misses Anna Moosman and Rosa Giger were trading in Glasgow last Saturday.

Misses Lena and Josephine Spencer were in Glasgow Tuesday.

Chas. Deere of Oak Ridge, accompanied by sister Miss Pearl were the guests of friends in this vicinity Sunday.

Guy Hays one of Oak Ridge's popular young men was in our midst Sunday.

Hugo Kessler, Geo. and Martin Giger were in Glasgow one day this week.

Wonder what has become of that great prophet who predicted a great drought for 1907. He must have been drowned, for very little is heard of him recently.

Wheat threshing began last Friday. The yield is falling short of what the farmers expected.

Misses Joseshine Meyer and Mary Olendorf were on the Ridge Monday picking blackberries.

The Old Muddy has again caused great anxiety among the people living in the valley. It got up to a pretty high stage Wednesday but at present is falling slowly.

Ray Johnson, of Fish Creek called on a very intimate friend here Sunday wonder if he got home before the rain?

J. R. Heuman, of River View, was here Tuesday looking after his interests in the lower bottom.

ROSE VALLEY

Rev. Meyer and wife are the proud parents of a daughter, born July 15th.

Some of our young men are quite enthusiastic among the ladies where they go to see them Sundays. They forget to return home till some time Monday—of course rain is the cause.

Rain has stopped threshing but farmers are all smiles for it helped the corn.

The little daughter of Herman Viets is sick at this writing.

Mrs. August Kueker is on the sick list.

G. Kothe and wife spent Sunday at A. Kueker's.

D. Alpers went to Sweet Springs Friday and got coal and sacks for threshing.

NEW FRANKFORT

Mrs. Albert Strong, of Paxico, and Pete Kaul, of Holten, Kan., attended the funeral of Philip Reidenbach.

Threshing has been at a stand still since the recent hard rains.

The Marshall Republican and Daily Globe-Democrat is R. F. D. subscribers, 65 years